FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE PNG Air Warns Against Unauthorized Job Advertisements

Port Moresby, Papua New Guinea – 09th March 2026

PNG Air Limited advises the public that job vacancy advertisements currently circulating on certain social media pages and informal platforms are unauthorized. These postings were not issued or approved by PNG Air and misuse the airline's corporate name and brand.

Some of these ads contain false information, incorrect contacts, and branding inconsistencies. They mislead applicants, damage the airline's reputation, and compromise the integrity of our recruitment process.

PNG Air formally requests that all unauthorized pages and administrators:

1. Cease publishing recruitment content under PNG Air's name; and
2. Remove any existing unauthorized postings immediately.

Official job vacancies are only published through:

- PNG Air's verified LinkedIn, Facebook, and Instagram pages
- Approved recruitment partners (list names here)

Applicants should confirm vacancy details via official channels before submitting personal information.

PNG Air reserves all legal rights under the Cybercrime Code against unauthorized use of its brand and intellectual property.
